

Master of Science in Communications and Information Management

Plan for Students Starting in the Fall 2009 Semester – Accelerated Program

NOTE: There are 8 required core courses and 4 electives to complete for a total of 12 courses.
Students must take at least 2 MSCIM electives. Two electives may be taken from other disciplines.
Courses are offered 1 evening a week from 6 – 10 pm or online except as noted.

FALL SEMESTER: October 19 – December 12, 2009 (Take the A Courses)

- A. CIM 603 Professional Communications Strategies
- A. CIM 605 Business Intelligence

FALL SEMESTER: January 4 – February 27, 2010 (Take the A Courses)

- A. CIM 601 Theories of Communication
- A. CIM 634 Strategies for Fiscal Management

SPRING SEMESTER: March 1 – April 24, 2010 (Take the A Course and take one B Course)

- A. CIM 610 Business Information Strategy in a Global Environment
- B. CIM 655 Advanced Graphics
- B. CIM 658 Strategies of Information Management
- B. Elective (chosen from another discipline)

SPRING SEMESTER: April 26 – June 19, 2010 (Take the A Courses)

- A. CIM 607 Applied Research Strategies
- A. CIM 640 Strategic Innovation

SUMMER SEMESTER: June 21 – August 21, 2010 (Take two B Courses)

- B. CIM 642 Project Management
- B. CIM 630 Legal Issues in Communication & Information Management
- B. Elective (chosen from another discipline)

SUMMER SEMESTER: August 24 – October 16, 2010 (Take the A Course and take one B Course)

- A. CIM 670 Case Analysis Capstone
- B. CIM 654 Knowledge Management
- B. Electives (chosen from another discipline)